2016 Photo Competition
Photo Description Form

Complete this form and email along with up to three (3) photographs to einaudi.center@einaudi.cornell.edu, with the subject line "Photo Competition: [Your Name]." Photographs of minors must be accompanied by the "Permission for Photography of a Minor Child" form. Photographs of persons in non public places should also be accompanied by the "Permission for Photography" form. Deadline for submission of entries is October 31, 2016.

DESCRIPTIONS MUST BE NO MORE THAN 280 CHARACTERS, INCLUDING SPACES; TITLES NO MORE THAN 45 CHARACTERS. Indicate how the image is related to your research, which was funded by the Einaudi Center (e.g., "My trip to Mexico City was focused on the local culture, as well as with local authors and artists. In this photo, Ruben Martin, a talented musician, is showing me around the popular center of the city, the Zocalo, and the surrounding streets.")

Name of Photographer: ____________________________________________________________________________________

Field of Study at Cornell: ____________________________________________________________________________________

Einaudi Center Award: ____________________________________________________________________________________

College/Department: ______________________________________________________________________________________

Title of 1st photo: (maximum of 40 characters including spaces) ____________________________________________

Place where the photo was taken: __________________________________________________________________________

Description: ______________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Title of 2nd photo: (maximum of 40 characters including spaces) ____________________________________________

Place where the photo was taken: __________________________________________________________________________

Description: ______________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Title of 3rd photo: (maximum of 40 characters including spaces) ____________________________________________

Place where the photo was taken: __________________________________________________________________________

Description: ______________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________________________

By submitting entries to the Einaudi Center Photo Competition at einaudi.center@einaudi.cornell.edu, I confirm that I am the photographer of the images submitted and own all rights to them; that I permit the Mario Einaudi Center for International Studies, its affiliated programs, and Cornell University to publish my photographs in any or all media and to use them for promotional and educational purposes, without payment.

Electronic Signature: ________________________________ Date: ________________________________