Funding Opportunities for Graduate International Studies Research

Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad Fellowship

Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad (DDRA) Fellowships

1. Name and Info URL

Name: Fulbright-Hays DDRA Fellowships

2. Deadline

The 2015 application is expected to open either in April for May 2015, and will close approximately four weeks after the opening date. Prospective applicants are required to contact the Einaudi Center at fulbright@einaudi.cornell.edu to indicate their intention to apply.

3. Description (Including types of grants/fellowships available)

This program provides grants to colleges and universities to fund individual doctoral students who conduct research in other countries, in modern foreign languages and area studies for periods of six to twelve months. Projects deepen research knowledge on and help the nation develop capability in areas of the world not generally included in U.S. curricula. Projects focusing on Western Europe are not supported.

4. Eligibility

The applicant:

- Is a citizen or national of the United States or is a permanent resident of the United States
- Is a graduate student in good standing at an institution of higher education in the United States who, when the fellowship begins, is admitted to candidacy in a doctoral program in modern foreign languages and area studies at that institution
- Is planning a teaching career in the United States upon graduation
- Possesses adequate skills in the language(s) necessary to carry out the dissertation project

The following is a checklist of application components:

- Fully completed Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad application
- Curriculum Vitae
- 10-page narrative
- Bibliography, maximum 2 pages
- IRB narrative (Both exempt and non-exempt research projects must submit a narrative, see application package for instructions)
- 3 Electronic Graduate Student References – initiate the e-mail to your references
- 1 Electronic Language Reference for each language of research
- Letter of support from host institution
- Graduate School Transcripts (Submit to: Project Director, 158 Uris Hall, for mailing one week in advance of the closing date)

Submit your application to your institution’s Project Director via e-Application well in advance of the closing date (contact your Project Director for information about internal deadlines).

When students submit the application through the Internet via the e-Grants website, they will receive an automatic acknowledgment via e-mail when their university’s Project Director receives the application.
6. Selection Criteria

The maximum score for all of the criteria, including the competitive preference priority, is 110 points. The maximum score for each criterion is indicated in parentheses.

Quality of proposed project (60 points): The Secretary reviews each application to determine the quality of the research project proposed by the applicant. The Secretary considers:

- The statement of the major hypotheses to be tested or questions to be examined, and the description and justification of the research methods to be used (15 points)
- The relationship of the research to the literature on the topic and to major theoretical issues in the field, and the project’s originality and importance in terms of the concerns of the discipline (10 points)
- The preliminary research already completed in the United States and overseas or plans for such research prior to going overseas, and the kinds, quality and availability of data for the research in the host country or countries (10 points)
- The justification for overseas field research and preparations to establish appropriate and sufficient research contacts and affiliations abroad (10 points)
- The applicant’s plans to share the results of the research in progress and a copy of the dissertation with scholars and officials of the host country or countries (5 points)
- The guidance and supervision of the dissertation advisor or committee at all stages of the project, including guidance in developing the project, understanding research conditions abroad, and acquainting the applicant with research in the field (10 points)

Qualifications of the applicant (40 points): In determining the qualifications of the applicant, the Secretary considers:

- The overall strength of the applicant’s graduate academic record (10 points)
- The extent to which the applicant’s academic record demonstrates strength in area studies relevant to the proposed project (10 points)
- The applicant’s proficiency in one or more of the languages (other than English and the applicant’s native language) of the country or countries of research, and the specific measures to be taken to overcome any anticipated language barriers (15 points)
- The applicant’s ability to conduct research in a foreign cultural context, as evidenced by the applicant’s references of previous overseas experience, or both (5 points)

Priorities: This notice contains one absolute priority and two competitive preference priorities, which are explained in the following paragraphs. In accordance with 34 CFR 75.105(b)(2)(ii), these priorities are from the regulations for this program (34 CFR 662.21(d)).

Absolute Priority: For FY 2012, the following is an absolute priority. Only applications that meet this priority will be considered.
This priority is:

A research project that focuses on one or more of the following geographic areas: Africa, East Asia, Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands, South Asia, the Near East, Central and Eastern Europe and Eurasia, and the Western Hemisphere (excluding the United States and its territories).
