Internationalization Symposium:
Integration of International Experience into the Curriculum

May 13, 2015 in G10 Biotechnology, Cornell University

08:30 am  Heike Michelsen (Director of Programming, Einaudi Center): Welcome and Introduction

08:45 am  Fredrik Logevall (Vice Provost for International Affairs and Director, Einaudi Center): Two Years of Global Cornell: Where Are We Now?

SESSION 1: INTERNATIONALIZING THE CURRICULUM (Chair: Fredrik Logevall)

9:00 am  Harvey Charles (Northern Arizona University): The Research University: Answering the Challenges of a Global Age

9:30 am  Faculty panel: Case studies from various Cornell colleges (Chair: Harvey Charles)
          Panel members:
          Xu Xin, Adjunct Associate Professor, Government Department, Arts and Sciences
          Terry Tucker, Associate Director, International Programs, College of Agriculture and Life Sciences
          David Pelletier, Associate Professor, Human Ecology
          Elizabeth Brundige, Assistant Clinical Professor of Law and Executive Director of the Avon Global Center for Women & Justice, Law School
          Madelon Finkel, Professor and Director of Office of Global Health, WCMC

10:30 am  Coffee/tea break in the lobby

SESSION 2: GLOBAL LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ASSESSMENT (Chair: Laura Brown, Senior Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education)

10:45 am  Hilary Landorf (Florida International University): What Should a Globally Competent Cornell Graduate Know and be Able to Do?* (*And How Will We Know?)

11:15 am  Student panel: Reflecting on international experiences (Chair: Hilary Landorf)
          Panel members:
          Julia Grace Vasta, Cornell in Seville Program, Arts and Sciences
          Jo Yang, Food Science Study Abroad, CALS
          Skyler Erickson, AguaClara RIDE, Engineering
          Andrew Henry Stawasz, Global Service Learning (GSL) Program, ILR
          Brennan Whitaker Duty, Sustainable Global Enterprise Immersion Program, Johnson School

12:15 pm  Lunch - Celebrating 30 years of Cornell Abroad

SESSION 3: STRATEGIES AND MODELS OF INTEGRATING INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES (Chair: Marina Markot, Director, Cornell Abroad)
1:30 pm  Lynn Anderson (CEPA Foundation): Integrating Education Abroad into the Curriculum

2:00 pm  Faculty panel: Innovative ideas to internationalize the curriculum
   (Chair: Lynn Anderson)
   Panel members:
   John Forester, City and Regional Planning, AAD
   Kaja McGowan, History of Art and Visual Studies, Arts and Sciences
   James P. Lassoie, Natural Resources, CALS
   Julie Nucci, Materials Science and Engineering, Engineering
   Susan Fussell, Communication, and Department of Information Science, CALS/CIS

3:00 pm  Coffee/tea break in the lobby

SESSION 4:  INSTITUTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES TOWARDS CURRICULUM INTEGRATION
(Chair: Laura Spitz, Associate Dean for International Affairs, Law School)

3:15 pm  Resources and tools from campus units supporting internationalization
   Campus units:
   Einaudi Center
   Cornell Abroad
   Engaged Learning + Research
   Office of Academic Diversity Initiatives (OADI)
   Center for Teaching Excellence
   Language Resource Center
   Academic Technologies

4:00 pm  Leadership panel: Shaping a successful internationalization agenda for Cornell in the 21st century (Chair: Laura Spitz)
   Panel members:
   Laura Brown, Senior Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education
   David DeVries, Associate Dean of Undergrad Education, Arts and Sciences
   Rebecca Stoltzfus, Provost's Fellow for Public Engagement
   Max Pfeffer, Senior Associate Dean, CALS

4:45 pm:  Final Remarks

5:00 pm  End of Symposium