The Einaudi Center’s biannual faculty small grant program, which is designed to support international conferences and events, has been significantly expanded as part of Cornell’s internationalization strategy. Tenured and tenure-track Cornell faculty are eligible to apply for these small grants, as are faculty-led Programs and Centers within the university, irrespective of their college or school of origin.

CRITERIA
The grant’s general objective is to support international studies conferences and other events organized under the leadership of internationally engaged faculty at Cornell. We are particularly interested in proposals that:

- Request co-sponsorship for conferences, workshops, seminars, and other events;
- Develop and expand sustainable international partnerships that serve the research and educational needs of students across campus;
- Have discernable benefits to international studies at Cornell;
- Conform to the highest academic standards.

Note: The Einaudi Center does not accept proposals from previous Einaudi Center awardees who have failed to turn in their final report by the deadline stated in the award letter, or proposals from recipients whose projects are still in progress.

AMOUNT OF AWARD
Not to exceed $10,000

APPLICATION DEADLINE
September 15, 2015 (awards are announced in October)

SUPPORTED ACTIVITIES
Grants can support expenses related to course development, conferences, workshops, seminars, and other events. Grants will not provide salary offset or summer salary, computers, student stipends or tuition.

PERIOD OF ACTIVITY
All funds must be used within one year of award date.

PROCEDURES
Interested faculty should submit a proposal including:

- A description of background, objectives, activities, work plan, expected outputs, beneficiaries, and impact (not to exceed 1,500 words)
- A detailed budget with justification of expenses
- Curriculum Vitae for principal faculty involved
- Human Subjects approval, where necessary

SUBMISSION
Proposals should be submitted electronically to Heike Michelsen, Director of Programming for the Einaudi Center (hm75@cornell.edu, tel. 607-255-8926).